CLINICAL PRACTICE UPDATES IN HEMOSTASIS AND THROMBOSIS

NOVEMBER 10, 2018
EMORY UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL MIDTOWN
Glenn Auditorium
550 Peachtree Street NE
Atlanta, GA 30308

GENERAL INFORMATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Clinical Practice Updates in Hemostasis and Thrombosis is designed to provide practitioners with information on the diagnosis and management of inherited and acquired hemostatic and thrombotic disorders along with new medication updates. Diagnostic and therapeutic approaches will be explored via interactive case discussions.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This educational activity targets practicing hematologists/oncologists who diagnose and treat patients with congenital and acquired hemostatic and thrombotic disorders as well as interested internists.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this education activity, learners should have the ability to:
- Describe initial evaluation of patients presenting with abnormal bleeding or venous thromboembolism;
- Apply best practices for the treatment of hemostatic and thrombotic disorders;
- Evaluate the risks and benefits of new treatment strategies for patients with hemostatic and thrombotic disorders.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT
The Emory University School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 6.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 6.5 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine’s (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider’s responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

The Emory University School of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CONFERENCE LOCATION AND LODGING
The conference will be held in the Glenn Auditorium at Emory University Hospital Midtown, 550 Peachtree Street NE, Atlanta, GA 30308. Self-parking is available and costs $6.00/day.
