

INTERNAL MEDICINE GRAND ROUNDS

TITLE:

CPR: Not All It's Cracked Up To Be

SPEAKER:

Marissa C. Galicia-Castillo, MD

DATE:

Wednesday, February 7, 2024

TIME:

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

LOCATION:

Waitzer Hall, Suite 300, and Virtually through Zoom

Marissa C. Galicia-Castillo, MD
MSEd, CMD, FACP, AGSF, FAAHPM

John Franklin Distinguished Chair of Geriatrics
Director, Glennan Center for Geriatrics &
Gerontology
Program Director, Hospice & Palliative
Medicine Fellowship

OBJECTIVES:

- Examine the literature regarding CPR and survival in specific patient populations.
- Develop an approach to addressing resuscitation with patients and families.

COMPETENCIES:

Patient Care, Medical Knowledge, Interpersonal and Communication Skills, Patient-centered Care

AUDIENCE:

Internists, family practitioners, fellows, residents, medical students, allied health professionals and community physicians

Dr. Galicia-Castillo, Director for the Glennan Center for Geriatrics and Gerontology at EVMS, completed her medical education and training at EVMS, joining the faculty in 2001. She holds Board Certification in Internal Medicine, Geriatrics, and Hospice and Palliative Medicine. As the inaugural Fellowship Director for Hospice and Palliative Medicine, she also serves as interim Director for Geriatrics and the combined Geriatrics-Internal Medicine Residency program. Additionally, she is the Medical Director for Lake Taylor Transitional Hospital's Macon Brock Palliative Medicine Service, mentoring teams at Sentara Norfolk General and Careplex Hospitals. Dr. Galicia-Castillo, a graduate of the ELH Program at Drexel University College of Medicine, has published articles on Geriatrics, Palliative Medicine, and Medical Education.

ACCREDITATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION

Eastern Virginia Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE

Marissa C. Galicia-Castillo, MD and the planning committee members have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies to disclose.