What is the Fundamental Critical Care Support (FCCS) Course?
The Society of Critical Care Medicine’s (SCCM) internationally renowned two-day FCCS course is the go-to resource for training non-intensivists, house staff, nurses, or other critical care practitioners how to manage critically ill and injured patients effectively.

Through didactic lectures, small group discussion with clinical scenario questions and skill stations with hands-on instruction and experience, the FCCS course will help to disseminate basic concepts of critical care to all professionals who may be called upon to care for severely ill patients.

The FCCS course offers new pre-and post-tests for measuring participants’ growth as well as an online administrative binder, which contains the policies, processes and tools needed to offer a successful course.

Individuals who successfully complete the required provider or instructor course will receive a Certificate of Successful Completion.

Why should I attend the FCCS course?
The FCCS Course offers an approach to initial management of the critically ill patient for providers not formally trained in critical care. Participants will learn useful information about the extended care of critically ill patients, especially care related to mechanical ventilation, monitoring, organ hypoperfusion, and neurological support. Providers will receive guidance for acute problems encountered in the ICU and for sudden patient deterioration.

The FCCS Course content is an ideal curriculum for critical care residency training programs.

Who is eligible to become an FCCS Instructor?
FCCS Instructor applicants may become Instructors in any of the FCCS Provider courses as well as Instructor Courses. The necessary credentials to become an instructor include:

- SCCM Member in good standing, if a US resident
- Intensivist (determined by your country of residence)
- Physician board certified/eligible in critical care
- Nurse certified in critical care and/or baccalaureate or higher degree

For more detailed information, refer to Instructor Criteria on the FCCS Web page (http://www.sccm.org/SiteCollectionDocuments/Faculty%20Criteria.pdf).

For additional information on FCCS, contact the Hospital Relations Manager, at +1 847 493-6401 or at fccs@sccm.org.

How do I register?
Simply fill out the attached registration form and phone, mail, or fax it to the address listed on the form.
